ELECTIONS FOR HONOR GIRLS HELD

The election of the honor girls for the May Day Court was held Wednesday night, February 15th, the May Queen having been elected the preceding Monday. The results of the election are as follows: Jocelyn Watson, Maid of Honor; Harriet Dunlap, Scepter Bearer; and Anne Beth Price, Garland Bearer.

On Thursday night the halls were thronged with excited groups awaiting the May Queen who was to ask the rest of the court. According to custom, all of the other girls were asked the night after the election except the Freshmen Herald. These will be asked later.

The girls in the court are: Seniors—Page Birt, Elizabeth Cline, Elizabeth Prescott, Jean Williamson, Elizabeth Harms, Katherine Brightbill, Katherine Emery, Louise Harmed, Mary Lee, Anne Harrison Shepherd and Beas Lowrance.

Juniors—Elizabeth Lee Valentine, Anne Conway, Sarah Dodson, Virginia Hodgson, Josephine Klutz, and Margaret Timmerman.

Sophomores—Ida Moore, Margaret Terrell, Jane Callison, Frances Barnett, Mary Marshall, Patsy Jones, Claire Giesle, Mercer Jackson will be the Queen's page. Sarah Everett was appointed by the May Queen to lead the May Day Dance.

Athletic Elections To Be Held Tuesday

The election of President and Vice-president of Athletics will be held Tuesday, February 28th. There will be a ballot box in Gray parlor during the morning from 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock, and during the afternoon from 12:30 to 3:00. Separate ballots for each set of nominees will be furnished. Please number the nominees in the order of your choice.

The preferential ballot method of voting is a great advantage over the other types, as it eliminates the necessity of voting several times, and large meetings, where much time is wasted. If the preferential ballot, if your first choice is eliminated first, the ballot goes to your second choice, and so on down the line. By this means the same results are obtained as when the voting is done in rounds.

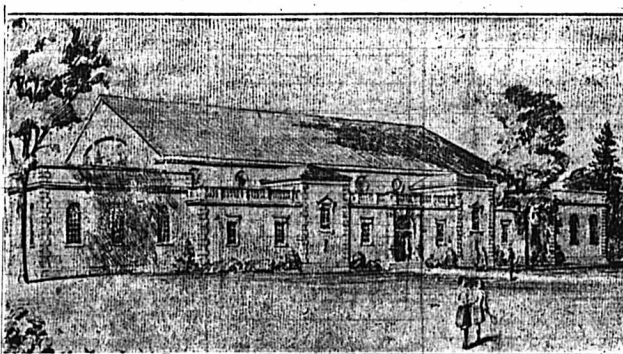

The nominees for President of Athletics for 1928-29 are:

Huldah Williams
Gertrude Prior
Mary Copeland
Hallet Gubelman
Mona Stone

The nominees for Vice-president are:

Agnes Sproul
Alice Blake
Eleanor Duval
Leo Sidman
Huldah Williams
Gertrude Prior
Mary Copeland
Mona Stone
Hallet Gubelman

If the girl who is elected Vice-president is needed more as a Head of Sport, she may resign her office of Vice-president, to accept the other. In this case another Vice-president would be elected, at the same time of the election of Secretary and Treasurer. (See Athletic Constitution in handbook Article V, Sections 1-2-3, Elections.)

Monday's Musical Program To Be Given By Orchestra

Mr. Martin has requested that the musical program for next Monday night be given over to the Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Weaver. They will repeat the selections played for the Lynchburg Woman's Club:

Pavane, —Ravel
Waltzes, —Brahms
Dance of the Archers, —Borodin

New Building Will Have Many Desired Features

The above picture shows the proposed gymnasium which is the objective sought by the students as their share in Sweet Briar's $750,000 Endowment and Building Campaign.

Of the $750,000 to be raised by June 1st, $375,000 is to be used to increase endowment and $375,000 to build three new buildings: a gymnasium, an auditorium and a library.

The "Student Drive" organized several years ago and carried on each year has as its aim the raising of a fund to provide a gymnasium. Over the several years of its existence it has raised and collected nearly $50,000 towards this fund.

Students are now engaging in an intensive campaign for the additional $50,000 with which to complete the project.

Architects have worked out tentative plans and locations which are being gone over carefully by the administration and it is hoped to have definite specifications by late spring so construction can be started as early as feasible.

The gymnasium has been planned with a view to getting into the building and out on the floor in the minimum of time so that there be no inconvenience in using the facilities as a means of pleasure as well as recreation.

Sweet Briar Orchestra Will Play In Lynchburg

The Sweet Briar Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Miriam Weaver, will play at a meeting of the Woman's Club in Lynchburg on February 25th.

The orchestra consists of three first violins, three second violins, one viola, one clarinet and two cellos, along with several pianists. This group, though small, has shown great interest in working for its concerts and for an organization of its size and age our orchestra has made great progress.

The program will be composed of a group of Beethoven's Waltzes, a Pavane by Ravel and "The Dance of the Archers," by Borodin.

Sweet Briar has heard the two last named selections in the orchestra's concerts. The Beethoven's Waltzes are new and are lovely in their melody and rhythm.

Dorothy Fowler, head of the Junior show, consented to give the names of the girls working under her.

There was an original committee for planning, composed of Elizabeth Bankford, Dorothy Birt, Virginia Hodgson, Meredith Ferguson, Mary Shelton, Josephine Klutz, Mary Lee Shepherd, Athlein Benton, Nora Lee Antrim, Ann Conway and Isabelle North.

This committee made the following choices of those to have charge of the different departments of the show: Lita Gulgon—dancing; Charlotte Whinnery—scenery; Claire Hoyt—costumes; Helen Weltman—properties; and Louise Dalley—music.

While the plan of the show is a secret, Dorothy said that it was to be divided into ten sections, with a special girl in charge and responsible for her part. These are: Lita Gulgon, Virginia Hodgson, Isabelle North, Mary Shelton, Elizabeth Bankford, Josephine Klutz, Alfreda Burge; and Athlein Benton and Dorothy Birt, together.

The show will be on the evening of Saturday, March 10th, and despite the time between the present and that date the Juniors are already at work in earnest to make the "best performance seen at Sweet Briar."

Edith Piper Well Received By Sweet Briar Audience

Edith Piper, in a song recital on Friday night, was enthusiastically received and fully appreciated by the Sweet Briar audience.

Miss Piper's full, clear, well trained voice made the interpretation of her songs delightful. To these accomplishments her charming personality added. Miss Kleuter, her accompanist, was excellent. The program was well balanced.

The program is as follows: Loughi sereni e cari, —Donaudy
Spirate pur, —Donaudy
Phyllis has such Charming Graces, —Old English
M'ha prece' alla sua regina, —Paradies

Das Verlassene Macgillein, —Wolf
Vergehlisches Ständchen, —Brahms

Quvre Tes Yeux Bleus, —Massenet

Florence Harvey Kleuter at the Piano.

Miss Piper was particularly pleasing and generous in giving encores. She was thoroughly appreciated by the audience.

The music students and members of the Glee Club and Choir enjoyed meeting Miss Piper at a reception in Reid immediately after the recital.

Dr. Raymond Entertains Junior Class At Tea

Dr. Raymond entertained the Junior class at a Valentine tea in Reid parlor, on February 14th. She is an honorary member of the class. She presented one of Mrs. Barrett's paintings to Natalie Skidman who got the highest average in the class.

OUR CHANCE TO HELP.

In every college the students are given an opportunity to engage in charity work of various kinds, and to show their interest in the welfare of others. And because of its ideal situation Sweet Briar has, perhaps, played an unusual part in such activities. There is a continued demand for our support from numerous and varied sources, so that most of us render assistance at some time during our college career. But the attention of the entire student body is now called to a particularly interesting field of work, and each of us is asked to cooperate in an extremely worthy cause.

Every student who attended the convocation last spring in which Mary Elizabeth Moore spoke of the Mission school for colored girls in Hildentite, N. C., was interested in the purpose of the institution, and impressed by its accomplishments. We all approved the idea of an industrial school for the Negro girls in the mountains of North Carolina, to help lift the veil of illiteracy which now hangs over that region. The training given is designed to fit the girls for various kinds of work, and make them useful members of their community. That they are doing their part to make the Mission a success is proved by a recent letter from the Principal to Miss Gail, in which their enthusiastic efforts are vividly described. They are determined to overcome all obstacles and secure an education, so that they in turn, may prove an inspiration and a guide toward the future development of their race. And their plea for help has not been unanswered. Everyone who is familiar with the school is interested in its growth, and all who have examined the buildings and equipment see the necessity for immediate improvement. Many have requested their own needs, in order to be of some assistance. But a far more widespread response is required to justify the establishment of the school, and insure the attainment of its highest aims.

And we are now given an opportunity to help, and to show our interest in this worthy cause. We are asked to bring contributions of money or clothes to Miss Hoover in room 28, Fletcher, before the end of this month. Thus we may render immediate and valuable service. Certainly, each of us must applaud the progressive spirit of the Hildentite workers, and welcome this opportunity to pledge our support.

ON THE RECENT ELECTIONS.

The last few weeks have been brim full of the excitement of our annual elections. We have attended meetings, and written our votes on numerous paper slips. And when the champions were announced, we thrilled and cheered with enthusiasm. Is that all the elections are to mean to us? Now that we have voted as our consciences dictated, will we lean back with a sigh of relief and feel that our duty is done?

Somewhat we are all concerned enough to feel that we have done something, extraordinarily noble in electing an officer. We think we have conferred a great honor on the chosen one, and sentiment, if expressed, would be something like this: "We have put our faith in you. May you be worthy of it." Faith? We hear a great deal about faith in this sense, and the term is dogmatically. The girl who is to fill an official position wants the kind of faith that will give her active support, instead of mere complacent acceptance. The so-called "faith" that expects the other person to do all the work, accept all the responsibilities, receive all the blame, is not faith; it is imposition.

Too often we forget our part of the contract. Remember that when a girl accepts an important position at Sweet Briar, she puts her faith in us. She does not need to be reminded of her duties. Her very mind thrills with the desire to fill her job well. Her very acceptance is a prayer that she prove successful. If only each individual at Sweet Briar would consider her responsibilities as deeply and earnestly! For we who claim no official titles have also solemn obligations. In electing any officer we are pledging morally if not verbally our earnest support. Let us prove that our pledge is not in vain.

Student Campaign Given Impetus At Meeting.

The Campus Campaign for a new gymnasium—as part of Sweet Briar's $750,000 Endowment and Building Campaign—was given an enthusiastic endorsement at last Thursday's convocation.

The keynote of the meeting was struck when Katherine Emery, general chairman, in concluding the several talks, said, "We forget that we don't have a gymnasium here; we are so accustomed to the old basement in Grammer that we don't realize what we haven't until we visit some college with a well equipped gym."

"The present students are unique in being here when Sweet Briar history is being made. Some will even see the new buildings."

"It is interesting to see what students have done in other colleges. Students at Elmira College for women raised $75,000. Mt. Holyoke $90,000, Randolph-Macon, $109,000, and incomplete figures from Wellesley show $115,000."

"We already have nearly $50,000 of our $100,000 goal, and in comparison with what others have done, our goal seems very modest."

"The gymnasium is our special project. By building it, we shall never forget our college, and the college will never be able to forget us."

President Glass spoke briefly on the importance of the campaign to the academic equipment of Sweet Briar; Mr. Allen Cucullu as a member of the Board of Overseers on the interest of the board in the college's welfare; and Miss Margaret Banister, president of the Alumnae Association and chairman of the Alumnae Campaign, on the cooperation of the 2200 alumnae in doing their share.

PARENTS AND SWEET BRIAR.

Our fathers and mothers want to know more about Sweet Briar. They visit the campus when they can, they stay as long as possible, and exhibit an insatiable appetite for news of ourselves and the college.

The editors venture the modest hope that the "Sweet Briar News" may help in meeting and further stimulating this healthy interest. An extra copy of this week's issue is being delivered to each girl to send home. We hope parents will read it and share our life more and more.

HISTORY OF THE GLEE CLUB.

It was interesting to find, when cantatas, etc. When Miss Young's we first started hunting, that the Glee Club had existed in some form since 1924, when almost as long as there has been a Glee Club. It began on one of her supervision. However, she was famous "December sixteenth," forced to drop it again the same year, but appointed Lucy Marion Reeves student director under Miss Christmas Carols. They kept practice up from year to year until it had become the custom to have a Glee Club. During these two years, the club gave four most successful concerts.

Miss Helen F. Young, head of the Music department here for 18 years, has given us, through a letter to Miss Wainwright, details in 1926, when she was elected business manager and secretary-treasurer respectively. During the year 1926-27, two concerts were given, one here with Miss Guion as student director, and one in Lynchburg with Miss Wainwright doing duty as choir on Sundays and directing. This last concert, the first Glee Club on special occasions. But even in the opening year, out of thirty-six students on the campus, a very fair chorus of eighteen was organized. And I remember the second year, the Glee Club was a large part of the show on May Day, after the crowning of the Queen, we gave a big concert in the refectory, that was before the pageant idea had developed. We sang the cantata, "Laid by Shalott" by Bond, and, by the way, it was from this that I arranged the song, "Sweet Briar, Flower Fair," with words by Mary Pinkerton.

The try-out nights for the Glee Club were exciting occasions. There was a perfect mob of students; an early date, a very novel concert traffic policeman would have been in costume. It promises to be one in order! Later, we hear, the try-out was based on instrumental done by the Glee Club and it is as well as vocal ability. . . .

Comprehensive Survey

Given By Mrs. Carter

Mrs. Carter gave the first of her series of lectures on Chinese Art and History on Tuesday, February 14th.

In the first lecture Mrs. Carter gave a comprehensive outline of the dynasties and history of China. Maps and charts aided in illustrating this.

A stereopticon lantern aided in the presentation of views of different parts of China. Archaeological discoveries were stressed as proof of the fact that China did have an age unknown as yet to the historians. As an introductory lecture, this was an interesting one.

Mrs. Carter's second lecture was on Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock. In this she spoke of the period from 2500 to 1100 B. C. During this period the three model emperors, Yao, Shan and Yu, lived. The Chou ruled from 2000 to 1100 B.C. This dynasty was B. C. and was made interesting to us by comparison with contemporaneous events in the history of Israel, Egypt and Greece.

The religious Confucianism, Buddhism and Taoism and their founders were discussed. Also mention was made of the predominance of bronze as a medium used in art during the Chou dynasty and the importance of jade which was considered the most precious stone.

In her lecture on Thursday, Mrs. Carter spoke of the Sung Invasion. Paper and rice were stressed as the important products of the Han dynasty, which extended from 140 to 47 B. C. The spread of the use of paper was traced from its origin through Asia and Europe.

FIRST FLOOR PLANS OF GYMNASIUM.

GROUND FLOOR PLANS.

New Buildings Will Have Many Desired Features.

The ground floor will contain lockers for every student where clothes, tennis, hockey and other equipment may be kept. Sufficient dressing room space is also provided so that even with the building working to capacity, there will be a place to leave cloaks and books.

There will be a janitor's in charge to look after the laundry and to supply fresh towels.

Twenty-four showers of the latest design are provided so that there will be little waiting in turn for their use.

One exceptional feature is the first swimming pool which is to be 20 x 50 feet with a deep end for diving. The pool has light from three sides. There will be space for spectators giving a splendid view of the pool.

A large room is assigned for storage of outdoor equipment and for the groundmen's tools.

The first floor shows the main gymnasium which will be large enough for two basketball courts cross-ways, both larger than the present court, and one regulation floor lengthwise, with a high ceiling and no obstructing posts.

The auxiliary gym provides a room for the carrying on of special work, classes in dancing or fencing and the like, when the main floor is in use.

The athletic store room will be larger and better equipped to carry on in a greater degree than now.

The director's office, corrective room, faculty dressing rooms, storage rooms, and a reading room are also shown.

A balcony capable of holding three tiers of seats runs across the front of the building over the offices; further accommodations will be available by installing two tiers of seats in a seven foot space along the edge of the court when the occasion arises.

The whole gymnasium is designed to provide a student center. Several rooms are available for meetings

European Tour Materializing

Applications for the Sweet Briar tour to Europe this summer, conducted by Miss Fraser and Dr. Connor, continue to be handed in. The Students Travel Club asks for a deposit of $25 before March 1st, or $50 after March 1st, and it is advisable to make such deposits at the earliest possible time in order to get the best reservations.

In the case of students who are now undecided and wish to withdraw later, full refund will be made up to April 15th. It is hoped, therefore, that all prospective members, even those for whom there is a remote possibility of going, will see Miss Fraser within the next week in order that the Sweet Briar party may have the best in transportation.
